

Londonderry Welcomes Board Members

Londonderry on the Tred Avon's Board of Directors has welcomed two new members, Bruce Kranz and Barbara Pratt.

Londonderry's Board is comprised of residents and community members who volunteer their time to provide guidance and strategic direction to the cooperative and its operations team.

"At Londonderry, our board members are vital partners in our mission," said Christine Harrington, Londonderry on the Tred Avon CEO. "Their experience and perspective enrich our community and help ensure that Londonderry remains the Eastern Shore's premier senior living destination."

Bruce Kranz moved to Londonderry in November 2023 with his wife, Lynn. A native of Cleveland, Ohio, Bruce earned his degree from The Ohio State University, where he and Lynn first met. His professional career was spent as an environmental engineer in the mining industry before transitioning to consulting, with a focus on remediation, cleanup, and redevelopment of contaminated industrial sites. Bruce and Lynn's life together has taken them from the mountains of southern West Virginia to Illinois and back to Ohio before settling on the Eastern Shore. They have one daughter who lives in Bethesda with her husband and daughter.

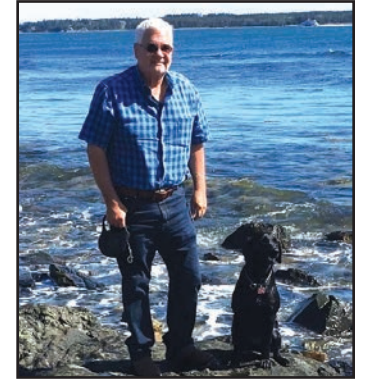

Barbara Pratt joined the Londonderry community in January 2024. Raised in the Washington, D.C. area, she graduated from Mary Washington College in 1970 and went on to a career as a legal secretary and paralegal in Washington law firms specializing in environmental and public interest litigation. Her work included roles at the Natural Resources Defense Council, Sierra Club Legal Defense Fund, Trial Lawyers for Public Justice, and Cohen Milstein Sellers & Toll. After marrying her husband, Phil Gibson, in 1993, she balanced career and family life, becoming a proud stepmother and grandmother. Following retirement, Barbara pursued her passions in gardening, becoming a Master Gardener, as well as cooking, book clubs, ceramics, and community engagement. She and Phil have lived in North Carolina and Severna Park before moving to Londonderry.
